2009 Collaboration & Interoperability Vendors Directory

ConnectPress has included a list of vendors who offer products and/or services for collaboration and interoperability for the architecture, engineering and construction (AEC) industry.

Whether your company is looking for a way to manage legacy data, share data, or upgrade your software you will find something useful here. This year's Vendors Directory features companies who specialize in integration, collaboration and viewers and more. No matter what your needs are you will find a solution to help meet your business challenges.
